

Congrats to the class of 2024
High School Graduates

Tyler Davis went to BCTC for building construction in high school and is pursuing a career or an electrician apprenticeship.

Gianna Franco will attend Drexel University's School of Nursing.

Emily McGonigle will attend University of Delaware, majoring in Medical Diagnostics with a concentration in pre-med.

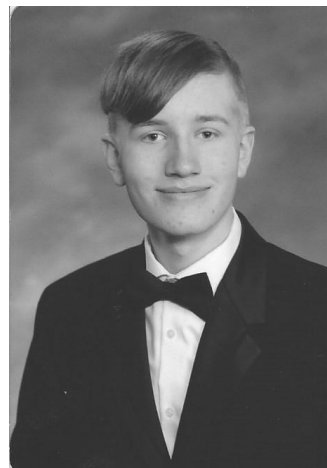

Colin Rosenberger will attend BCTC Adult Program to earn his welding certification.

Andrew Stein will attend Dickinson College to major in Computer Science.

Chase Templeton will attend West Chester University to major in Sports Medicine Studies and earn a Master's Degree in Athletic Training.

We hope you have the chance to see our graduates' faces in worship on Sunday, June 2 at 9:30am. We will hear their future plans, gift them with a book of poems and prayers and bless their post-graduation adventures.
