Called by Christ + Gathered in Grace + Joyfully Serving

From Pastor Jen...

Dear Trinity Family,

Last month I talked about how 2026 was here whether we were ready or not. This month brings the season of Lent, whether we are ready or not. I knew it would be a short time between Epiphany and Lent, but it still came with a bit of surprise.

In years past, we have had a Lenten devotional. While it has taken on different styles over the years, I have enjoyed that it is a collection of your voices, stories, and prayers guiding us through the season of Lent.

This year, while I had great hopes of a Trinity Lenten devotional, we will instead have an Easter devotional. If I've learned anything over the last few years (and months) in ministry, it's that every once in a while, we still need to pivot. We've seen that when weather shifts our ability to gather in person. We've seen that when life, health, or death interrupts our daily flow.

Needless to say, the pace of January and the brevity between Epiphany and Lent mean that we are pivoting our congregational devotions this year. As the nation struggles with who we are and how we are called to show up in the world, we, too, wrestle with that call each and every day — as children of God and as the church in the year 2026. And yet we continue to show up — called by Christ, we gather in grace to joyfully serve.

This Lent, I encourage you to think about who Christ is calling you (and us) to be. I encourage you to keep gathering in this space, in this place, knowing that God's grace surrounds you. And I encourage you to continue serving joyfully, whether as a worship leader, Sunday school teacher, Food Pantry volunteer, newsletter helper, or any of the many other ways you are welcome to serve here.

Pastor Jen

From Pastor Eileen...

Won't You Be...My Neighbor?

My dear siblings in Christ,

When my children were young, a familiar afternoon routine was watching Mr. Rogers' Neighborhood. Together we sang the familiar opening song: "Would you be mine? Could you be mine? Won't you be...my neighbor?"

Fred Rogers' idea of "neighbor" taught children from an early age that neighbors were often people who were very different from themselves, and "Mr. Rogers' Neighborhood" was a place that presented diversity and differences as things to savor and celebrate.

The witness of Scripture tells us that being the people of God means recognizing and caring for our "neighbors." From Leviticus 19:

- 1 The Lord spoke to Moses, saying:
- 2 Speak to all the congregation of the people of Israel and say to them: You shall be holy, for I the Lord your God am holy...
- 9 When you reap the harvest of your land, you shall not reap to the very edges of your field, or gather the gleanings of your harvest.
- 10 You shall not strip your vineyard bare, or gather the fallen grapes of your vineyard; you shall leave them for the poor and the alien: I am the Lord your God. Lev. 19:1-2, 9-10

There is often a false notion that the teachings of Jesus are meant to be a corrective to the teachings of the Hebrew scriptures. But Jesus himself clearly says that he came to fulfill the law—the teachings that have come through the prophets for centuries.

This reading from Leviticus reflects a theme that occurs often in the teachings of the Hebrew prophets, and of Jesus: care for our neighbor.

Leaving parts of a field or vineyard unharvested was a way to provide food for those who were poor, or those who were not natives and did not have land of their own to cultivate.

The message is simple and clear. What has been given to us is not meant to be hoarded, but shared. Not just with the poor of our own community but with those who come from other places, travelers seeking food and rest. It's a challenging teaching...and task, but one we need to take seriously because it isn't just a suggestion. It's the way we are commanded to live, because "I am the Lord your God."

The Conrad Weiser Food Pantry is one of the ways we live out that command from God. Trinity provides a home base for the pantry, a location for food distribution, volunteers and resources to provide supplemental food for neighbors from all over Berks County.

Thank you for the many different ways you help to provide food and hope and compassion for our neighbors who rely on the CW Food Pantry to feed themselves and their families.

Blessings!

Pastor Eileen

From Vicar April...

"Remember you are dust, and to dust you shall return." Is it that time of year already? It seems like only yesterday the Christmas trees were being taken down and all the decorations were being put back into storage, and I began my first Sunday here at Trinity. And now the Lenten season is upon us.

Across the globe, ten words will be spoken and Christians will be identified by that tiny, black cross on hand or forehead; the only day of the year the "secret handshake" is out. You can go to the grocery store and walk down the aisle, look at one's forehead, and know that person is a follower of Christ. For one day we are reminded there is unity within the community, and then Poof! it is gone with the night's cleansing. Gone with the night's sunset and forgotten with the morning's sunrise. We forget we are dust. We forget to dust we shall return.

Ash Wednesday is the beginning of my favorite time of the church year. I absolutely LOVE lent (not just because the liturgical color is purple). It is a time of spiritual reflection for me; to look back over the past year and mark my growth and where I blossomed, as well as the areas that withered and need to be fertilized. It is also a time of purging. The Gospel reading for Ash Wednesday says, "Do not store up for yourselves treasures on earth, where moth and rust consume and where thieves break in and steal, but store up for yourselves treasures in heaven, where neither moth nor rust consumes and where thieves do not break in and steal. For where you treasure is, there your heart will be also" (Mt 6.19-21). Nadia Bolz-Weber talks about the "holy thief" that comes in the night and I think about this holy thief every Lent and ask myself a question: "If I could have the Holy Thief come during this Lenten season, what would I want that thief to purge from me that is keeping me from my relationship with God, Christ, and my usefulness to others?" Remembering where my treasure is, there were years when I simply needed to de-clutter the number of books in my library (which made my husband very happy). But there were other years when I prayed the Holy Thief would take away perfectionism or accepting I am truly God's beloved.

Ash Wednesday is the beginning of our journey from dust, a remembrance of our own creation in the beginning when we ourselves were formed from the dust of the earth (Genesis 2.7) and ends on Sunday morning with the Resurrection of our Risen Lord, a remembrance that although our physical bodies will return to physical dust, we have eternal life. I am reminded that I am human. I am reminded that I need God's grace everyday in-between the dust-to-dust. The journey of Lent, and especially Holy Week, reminds me just how much I am God's beloved child, just how much I need God's grace, just how much I need God's mercy. Remember that you are dust and to dust you shall return. Amen.

Blessing to All!

From Pastor Jen...

As we journey through this season, one where we often simplify things or pare down extravagance, I deeply encourage you to seek out moments of hope and joy. Throughout this season, please take note of these moments of hope and joy.

In the season of Easter, we will share a 50-day devotional of Trinity's moments of hope and joy. Please consider sharing your moments with me, along with a picture and a prayer, for our Easter devotional. We will share it in print and as daily posts on our Facebook page.

Thanks for looking for those moments of hope and joy. Thanks for being a place where we can experience hope and joy with one another. Keep your eyes open this Lent. God is still showing up, and so will we.

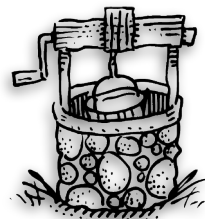

Devotional submissions can be sent to jdee@trinityrobesonia.org. Thanks!

+Peace,

Pastor Jen ▲

THANK YOU

Dear Friends at Trinity,

We are in receipt of your generous donation of $4,547.30 to the Conrad Weiser Food Pantry. Thank you so much! It will go a long way toward eliminating food insecurity within our community.

May God bless us always, in all ways.

Gratefully,

Joan Lincoln, Food Pantry Volunteer ▲

Wiggle Room Available

Wiggle Room (at the front right side of the Sanctuary)—A place for little ones who may need to move around without disrupting worship. No need for tears—just a little wiggle space! And note that a rest-room is inside, including a changing table. It is the closest restroom to the Sanctuary. ▲

How To Contact the Pastoral Staff

While we wish that we received a crystal ball in seminary so we would just 'know' the health and wellbeing of each and every Trinity person, that is not the case. If you know of upcoming surgeries, please call the church office and let us know. You can leave messages with Bob or Cheryl or you can ask to be directed to the voicemail of Pastor Jen or Pastor Eileen, whose voicemail boxes are confidential.

If there is an emergency event, especially on a Friday or Saturday (when the church office is closed) please call Pastor Jen at home 610-693-5551 or Pastor Eileen at 484-575-1881. ▲

NOTE: If you're calling the church office from a cell phone and get an error message, you may need to dial "1" first to get through.

Just a reminder...neither Trinity staff, nor Trinity members will reach out to you via email asking for gift cards. These emails are SCAMMERS. Do not reply to them—delete them. When we do ask for donations, we do so in the announcements at worship, in the bulletin and in the newsletter. If you are unsure, please call the church office. ▲

Weather-Related Cancellations

Sunday Worship & Sunday School

Please know that we love gathering together, but when the weather looks dangerous, or if our parking lot is not yet cleared, we may cancel events. We make this decision based on lots of factors, but the main one is the safety of each person at Trinity.

Sunday Worship, Sunday School and Wednesday Evening Worship

When decisions are made, we will update the church voicemail (610) 693-6062 and our Facebook page, and we will send out a mass email notification to everyone who has email. If you are ever uncertain, please call or check those places first before heading in. Also, make the best decision for you. If it is not safe for you to travel, please join us online.

Coffee and Conversation (Mondays at 9:00am)

If there is a weather-related delay or cancellation for the Conrad Weiser School District, Coffee and Conversation is cancelled. ▲

Sanctuary Upgrades Are Complete!

New wireless microphones, video projectors, video screens, desks and the computers, amplifiers, and monitors to control it all...exciting!

A huge thank you to folks who specifically supported this project and to the folks who con-

An anonymous giver is ready to donate $20,000 to this project if that amount is given from other folks throughout the congregation. If you would like to support this upgrade specifically, please make a note in the memo line of your check or online donation labeled "sanctuary upgrade." Thank you to everyone who continues to contribute to the building fund. You are helping these projects to happen. ▲

Family Support Fund

As we continue to live into our call to respond to the needs of our community and world, we have set up a Family Support Fund. We would like to have donations available for families facing emergency/crisis situations. We are doing this because we know that praying for the health and wellbeing of one another is deeply important, but we also know the realities families face when dealing with rising prices, a multitude of different caregivers, and working to maintain as much of the status quo for the rest of the family as possible. To give to this fund, you can give through Pushpay and note "Family Support Fund" in the memo, or checks can be made payable to Trinity with a note on the check or envelope that says Family Support Fund. ▲

Offering Envelopes for 2026

If you've used offering envelopes previously, your new envelopes are available on the table in the Upper Narthex. The 2026 envelope packs are in alphabetical order by last name.

IMPORTANT: Note that your offering envelope number for 2026 has changed.

If you are doing all of your giving in 2026 through Pushpay (strongly recommended), you will not need offering envelopes.

Questions? Give the church office a call or email. Phone numbers and email are listed on the front of the Bulletin. ▲

Someone in the Hospital?

If you have a family member in the hospital or in need of a call, visit, or prayers, please inform the church office. We don't always receive hospital notifications, so we rely on you. Thanks for your help—your assistance is key. ▲

Spring Cleaning for the Soul

Ash Wednesday is February 18, 2026, and it marks the beginning of the 40 days of Lent. Lent hints of spring, a time when the earth begins to awaken from a winter's nap, and new growth bursts forth all about us.

More personally, it is an opportunity to enter into a springtime for our spirit. For centuries Christians have used the 40 days of Lent to seek spiritual growth. Sincere repentance, a changing of heart, casting off old sinful practices and seeking to commune with our creator help us go in the right direction. Spending serious time in silence and prayer focuses our attention. Reading spiritual literature, becoming more knowledgeable about the New Testament, meeting in small groups with other Christians to share personal stories of faith can all be immensely stimulating. Joining with others to serve the helpless and hopeless can strengthen our spiritual life.

Lent is a time to let God do “spring cleaning” within us. It’s our opportunity to allow God to help us toss out the “stuff” that hinders us and then freshen up the “new creature” we are meant to be as followers of Christ. ▲

The Upside-Down Blessing

The Beatitudes are more than poetic lines from Jesus’ Sermon on the Mount. They’re a radical redefinition of what it means to be blessed. The Greek word makarios doesn’t just mean “happy.” It describes a deep, untouchable joy that pain, loss or hardship cannot erase. As scholar William Barclay wrote, it is “the joy which shines through tears.”

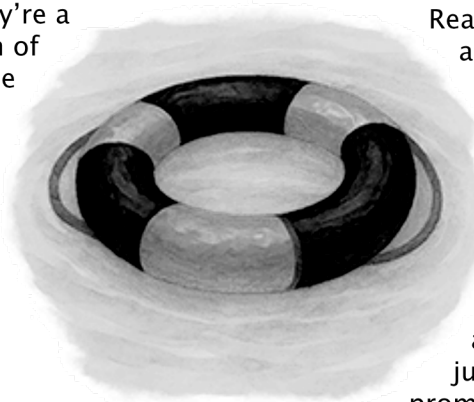

Jesus flips the world’s idea of success upside down. The “blessed” aren’t the powerful or prosperous, but the poor in spirit, the mourners, the meek and the merciful. Imagine reading them as “Congratulations, you who feel broken, God’s kingdom belongs to you!” His words assure us that, even in suffering, we stand in God’s favor.

Real blessing isn’t about shiny possessions or smooth sailing. It’s the steady, saving presence of God — a life preserver tossed to us when we’re struggling to stay afloat. And it’s not just an individual promise. Jesus spoke these blessings to a community, a we more than a me. Together, as the body of Christ, we find comfort, strength and the courage to live with joy that nothing in life or death can take away. ▲
