The Newsletter of Trinity Lutheran Church

Called by Christ + Gathered in Grace + Joyfully Serving

From Pastor Jen...

Dear Trinity Family,

As I shared in my sermon last month, I just read the book, How to Break Up with Your Phone: The 30-Day Plan to Take Back Your Life by Catherine Anne Price.

It has been a game changing read and even before I finished the 30-day plan, I had seen a difference.

I was able to see for myself that I would spend time on the phone, aimlessly, not learning, or doing things that helped me accomplish tasks, but rather as a way to zone out and disconnect from, well, pretty much anything around me.

Rather than seeking connection, and life in community, I would default to scrolling pretty much through any app I have, social media, news, email, weather, you name it.

And I discovered—something I guess I already knew to be true—but needed to relearn, that I was missing out on the world and the people around me.

Life in abundance was, is surrounding me, but I was opting to look away and disengage...to false connection and interaction through my phone.

I share all of this because, if as your pastor, one who preaches about abundant life in Jesus, and the life-giving abundance we receive when we are actively involved in this faith community—can fall into the trap of disconnecting, perhaps others of you have as well. And, well, that is not the life Jesus is calling us into.

The life Jesus is calling us into is one where we look at one another, truly see one another, and are present for and with one another. This life is where we set aside the things that distract us from seeing Jesus in this room, in our neighborhoods and larger community.

This life tends the wounds in our hearts and our souls. It comforts us in times of sorrow. It allows joy to show up and be shared in abundance. It offers us ample opportunities to connect truly and deeply with others.

Pastor Jen

From Pastor Eileen...

Women of the Bible

My dear siblings in Christ,

As we began last month with Sarah, we continue this month with Rachel, highlighting some of the women of the Bible in my monthly column. While I will highlight what we know from the biblical text, I will also be reflecting on the way I connect with their experiences as women of faith.

Pastor Eileen

Rachel

Rachel was a daughter of Laban, and was known as a woman of great beauty. Jacob, son of Isaac and Rebekah, who would become the father of the 12 men known as the heads of Israel's tribes, encountered Rachel when he journeyed to the land of his mother's family in search of a wife. Rachel's father Laban was Rebekah's brother, and Jacob's uncle.

Artist's rendition of Rachel

Rachel was known to be a woman of great beauty, and Jacob quickly asked for her hand in marriage. Laban agreed to the marriage, but only if Jacob worked for him for seven years. At the end of the seven years, Laban tricked Jacob into marriage with his older daughter, Leah. He told Jacob it was not the custom in his country to give a younger daughter in marriage before an older one, but that if Jacob worked another seven years he could also have Rachel.

So Jacob worked another seven years, and then took Rachel as his wife.

Although Rachel was the wife that Jacob loved most dearly, it was Leah who was able to give him sons, while Rachel remained barren. Rachel prayed that God would give her a son, and after many years she gave birth to Joseph. Because Joseph was the son of the wife he loved most, he was the favorite son of Jacob, who gifted him with a "robe with long sleeves", often referred to as a coat of many colors.

Rachel died in childbirth during the birth of Benjamin, who was the youngest of Jacob's 12 sons, and her only other child.

Rachel's life was not an easy one, especially during the years when she was barren and suffered the humiliation of being unable to fulfill her primary role of childbearing. She is most often honored for her diligence in prayer, and while she is known in Jewish and Christian traditions, she is also honored in Islam as wife of Jacob and mother of Joseph.

You can read her story in Genesis 29-35.

Blessings!

Pastor Eileen ▲

We are grateful that Pastor Eileen is eager and willing shift from quarter time to half time as Associate Pastor in the absence of having a full-time vicar.

From Pastor Jen...

This is the life Jesus is calling us into.

It is abundant.

It feeds our bodies and our souls.

It strengthens neighborhoods.

It connects strangers.

It feeds the hungry.

It makes us whole.

It enables us to live the abundant life Jesus wants for each and every human being.

When you are in the presence of God's amazing creation or the fabulous humans that inhabit it, I encourage you to look up. See God at work in our world and actively engage in it.

+peace,

Pastor Jen

A comfy space for little ones and their grown-ups

This room is available for parents or caregivers who need a quiet space to care for their children during worship. Feel free to come and go as needed — we're so glad you're here!

How To Contact the Pastoral Staff

While we wish that we received a crystal ball in seminary so we would just 'know' the health and wellbeing of each and every Trinity person, that is not the case. If you know of upcoming surgeries, please call the church office and let us know. You can leave messages with Bob or Cheryl or you can ask to be directed to the voicemail of Pastor Jen or Pastor Eileen, whose voicemail boxes are confidential.

If there is an emergency event, especially on a Friday or Saturday (when the church office is closed) please call Pastor Jen at home 610-693-5551 or Pastor Eileen at 484-575-1881. ▲

NOTE: If you're calling the church office from a cell phone and get an error message, try dialing "1" first to get through.

Just a reminder...neither Trinity staff, nor Trinity members will reach out to you via email asking for gift cards. These emails are SCAMMERS. Do not reply to them—delete them. When we do ask for donations, we do so in the announcements at worship, in the bulletin and in the newsletter. If you are unsure, please call the church office. ▲

Welcome, New Members!

Almost every week at Trinity, new folks are with us. Some are guests coming for the first time, others are folks who have reconnected here after a time away, and others visit once and just keep coming back. We are grateful that this congregation is a place where people feel welcome to worship, to gather, to learn, to grow and to care for one another.

On Sunday, May 17th, we welcomed individuals and families into membership at Trinity. Please welcome Zach, Becky, Hailey, and Hannah Kissinger, Madison Steingraber, and Mike and Judy Wentzel. We're glad you are here. ▲

Congratulations, Graduates

This is the time of year when we are recognizing our graduates. Trinity celebrates the way we are able to support both Trinity youth and youth in the Conrad Weiser School District where Trinity finds its home.

To all grads, high school, college, trade school, or beyond you are welcome to come forward on June 7th for a blessing and a prayer for your future endeavors.

Thanks to the All-Saints Scholarship Fund we are able to give a financial gift to high school graduates.

The Jack Frost Scholarship (awarded through Trinity) is given to two Conrad Weiser graduates who have exemplified community service and connection throughout their high school years in our community. The recipients were announced at the Conrad Weiser Awards Night on May 28th and in worship on May 31st. ▲

Redner's Save-A-Tape Update

Every receipt adds up, so please keep bringing in those tapes! As a reminder, your Redner's Rewards Card must be used at the time of purchase for your receipt to be eligible, and you must return the full tape. Deposit them in the box marked for Redner's Receipts in the upper Narthex. Many thanks to Bonnie Culp for her continued work organizing and submitting the tapes on Trinity's behalf.

Boyer's Food Market in Womelsdorf is also starting a new program this month. We will have more details in the July Tradewinds newsletter. Stay tuned! ▲

A Note About Pew Envelopes

To help keep our offering envelopes available for everyone's use, we've tucked colorful pieces of paper into the pew racks—perfect for little artists who need something to doodle on during worship! We kindly ask that parents encourage their children to use the colored paper rather than the offering envelopes. Thank you for helping us be good stewards of our resources! ▲

Thank you, Trinity Garden Volunteers!

We continue to be so thankful to these faithful volunteers who help to maintain our outdoor properties from springtime through frost and fall clean-up:

Jo Ressler, Dee and Curt Kramer, Jeff and Vicky Steltz, Cherie Benfer, Paige and Deb McKim, Jill Schubert, Reiner Miller, Gayle Dietrich, Bonnie Smith, Barbara Kessler, Linda Purdin, Becky Brand, Nicole Moore, the Umbenhauer Family, and Norb and Linda Schneider.

A special thank you to Mike and Jeannie Henry who have, once again, made a donation to Trinity's Garden Fund through a Thrivent grant. Your generosity is so appreciated! ▲

Pastor Bridget's Visit

On Sunday, May 3, we welcomed a special guest—Pastor Bridget Gautieri, the ELCA missionary Trinity helps sponsor. Pastor Bridget serves at the Wittenberg Center in Wittenberg, Germany, and she brought warm greetings from the wider church along with an inspiring update on the teaching, outreach, and ministry she is called to do there.

Pastor Bridget invited our congregation to participate in online educational offerings from the Wittenberg Center.

Watch for links on Trinity's website and Facebook page as those opportunities arise. She also extended a personal invitation to come visit her in Wittenberg—could a congregational trip in 2028 be in our future?

It is because of generous sponsors like you that Trinity is able to support Pastor Bridget and the work of the greater church. The 2026 Missionary Sponsor Calendar is posted on the bulletin board in the lower Narthex. Please add your name, or call the church office at 610-693-6062 for assistance. ▲
