The Newsletter of Trinity Lutheran Church

Called by Christ + Gathered in Grace + Joyfully Serving

From Pastor Jen...

Dear Trinity Family,

I hope you will join in this prayer of thanksgiving (repeat after me):

Dear God,

Thank you for loving us. Thank you for the waters of baptism that have washed over us all, gathering us together as body in your name.

Thank you for new beginnings, for trusting new leaders, and for the amazing hospitality of a U-Haul trip from Indiana to a fully stocked parsonage pantry in Robeson. Thank you for retreats in the woods, in the city, and for all the milkshakes! Thank you for worship, for sermons that open our eyes, our ears, our minds, and our hearts. Thank you for places in worship for laughter (even to the point of tears while standing in the pulpit) because of the deep comfort felt in this place. Thank you for holy spaces to cry, to be vulnerable, and to be open to the care and comfort of others. Thank you for spaces for hard conversations—about beliefs, about finances, about worries and wonders while we continue to trust in your presence through it all.

Thank you for the ordinary people who step in and step up as leaders in worship, on PPC, on boards, and throughout our gatherings together.

Thank you for showing up at wedding ceremonies, funeral gatherings and the meals that follow them all. Thank you for leading us and meeting us outside the box and outside the building when the pandemic shifted the way we gather. Thank you for online worship and the connections felt across the miles. Thank you for helping us extend an invitation to the young ones among us to join at your table for Holy Communion. You feed us with Jesus' body and blood, and we are sent out to feed others. Thank you for the food and faithful volunteers at the food pantry and the summer school distribution. Thank you for empanadas, pizza, and ice cream that now accompany Trinity Tailgates. God, you have fed us so well, I pray

Pastor Jen

From Pastor Eileen...

Women of the Bible – Deborah

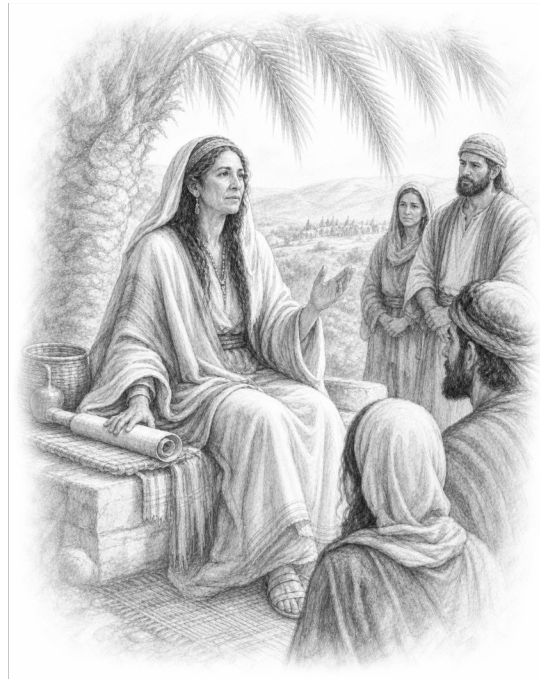

Between the years of 1350-1050 BCE (Before the Common Era), the leaders of the Israelite people were charismatic spiritual, military, and political leaders called judges, believed to be chosen by God. These judges served in the years before Israel became a monarchy under King Saul.

Some of the Judges are ones whose names we recognize, like Samson, Gideon, Eli, and Samuel. But among the Judges of Israel there was one woman, named Deborah.

Deborah is the only one of the Judges who is identified as a prophet, and the only one who is described as having a judicial role, settling disputes brought to her while she sits under the “palm of Deborah” in the hill country of Ephraim. She is known for her skill in promoting leaders because of their skills and abilities, rather than assuming those roles herself.

She is honored for her faithfulness in serving God, and for her role in leading the Israelites in their battle to conquer the Canaanites in the 1400’s BCE, although historians and archeologists have not found evidence that this battle ever occurred.

Artist's depiction of Deborah, prophet and judge of Israel, whose story is told in Judges 4-5

A hymn of “victory” attributed to Deborah is found in Judges 5, in which she praises God and attributes their victory to God’s power:

- 2 *“When locks are long in Israel,
when the people offer themselves willingly—bless the Lord!*
- 3 *Hear, O kings; give ear, O princes;
to the Lord I will sing;
I will make melody to the Lord, the God of Israel.*
- 4 *Lord, when you went out from Seir,
when you marched from the region of Edom,
the earth trembled,
and the heavens poured;
the clouds indeed poured water.*
- 5 The mountains quaked before the Lord, the One of Sinai, before the Lord, the God of Israel.” Judges 5:2-5

You can read about Deborah and the military battles she helped to lead in Judges 4 and 5.

Blessings!

From Pastor Jen...

that we are able to feed others through shared meals and shared compassion.

Thank you for welcoming us, just as we are. In a time when words and actions work to divide peoples and nations, you continue to help us cultivate and nurture a place of holy hospitality where all are welcome.

You hold us in the palm of your hands. We know you won't drop us. Thank you for walking with us during goodbyes and transitions. We've got this, because you completely and totally have us. Thank you for guiding us, guarding us, and for always remaining faithful.

In Jesus' name we pray,

Amen.

My final Sunday at Trinity is August 16 with one service at 9:30am followed by a reception. The date for my installation as Bishop has been set for October 31, Reformation Day. Time and location yet to be determined. All are welcome.

Pastoral Transition Update

From Jeff Brunner, Parish Planning Council Executive Director

The greater ELCA church has a very definite process that churches in our position follow.

The very first step is to meet with our Synod Dean of this area, & Assoc to the Bishop for transitional help. I have been in contact with Pastor Colleen Cox and Pastor Zach Labagh who will both be at our PPC meeting July 27th.

The PPC has already had discussion and approved the search for an Interim Pastor, to help us through the transition period, until we call a new Lead Pastor.

The next step is to appoint a Call Committee to review the paperwork, and interview prospective Lead Pastor candidates.

The ELCA recommends a call committee of just 6 people (one of which is under the age of 18). This is their recommendation, NOT a mandate. The PPC is discussing a committee of 7 or no more than 9 members. We're hoping for a good cross-section of our members—age, gender, background, time at Trinity, etc.

At the July PPC meeting, names were brought forth for discussion, and our hope is that we will have the final list put together at our August meeting. Many members have already approached me expressing their interest. If any of you would be interested in serving in this capacity, please let me know, and your name will be included in the discussion.

The Ministry Profile was just updated in 2022 when we called Pastor Jen as our Lead Pastor and yes, it's true, there are many sections in the profile that are still intact and correct, however, there is information that, though only 4 years old, does need to be updated. The Synod office has resources to help us update the profile in a timely manner.

The Congregation is not being left out. Part of the ELCA process is to have you complete a survey on three successive Sunday's this Fall, giving you the opportunity to express what you would like to see in our next Lead Pastor, and what direction Trinity should take.

It's important for us to realize this process could take 12 to 18 months to find a new lead Pastor—that is the typical length of time for a congregation in transition.

Pastoral candidates who are open to a new "call" put their information in a national database, and Trinity will have our information in that database for the "matching" to start to take place. The synod will coordinate with our Call Committee and begin to send us appropriate candidates for our review.

GOD's timing is not always our timing...there's a plan for us, and it will be revealed to us in due time.

I plan to speak to you on a monthly basis to give an update, and each month's newsletter will include one also.

Please don't hesitate to speak with or email me if you have questions.
